

MEMPHIS APPEAL

TUESDAY, MARCH 27, 1866.

Office—No. 13 Madison Street.

LOCAL MATTERS.

Mr. G. W. Trehearne is our solicited agent to extend the circulation of the Appeal, and we are happy to learn that he has come in our West Tennessee and North Mississippi. We beseech him in behalf of the trial attorneys and the public to testify that he will do his best to render him any assistance in their power to prosecute the object of his mission.

POSTPONEMENT.—We are requested by Judge Marland L. Perkins, of the Johnson Club, to announce the postponement of the meeting, heretofore appointed for this, to Friday evening next at 7 o'clock, at the Greenlaw Block.

RECORDING COURTS.—Our yesterday's notice in the Appeal was too hasty and unadvised, and must be recalled. The object of the meeting is to take into consideration the eight-hour system of labor, and to devise some means toward establishing a mechanics' institute in this city.

COMMUNION LAW COURT.—NOTICE TO ATTORNEYS.

The Trial District was called to Case No. 400, and will be continued to-day, as will appear by reference to the notice of the clerk to attorneys, to be found in another column.

COUNSEL LETTERS FOR BRY Goods.—Attention is directed to the advertisement of Benja. & McLean, in another column, proposing the exchange of a tract of cotton land for a stock of timber.

STATE SALE AT CITY HALL.—A large meeting of workmen, representing the various branches of mechanical pursuits, took place at the City Hall last evening.

Mr. M. C. Brooks, Esq., of the bar, was president of the meeting, and it was voted to take into consideration the eight-hour system of labor, and to devise some means toward establishing a mechanics' institute in this city.

WORKERS IN THE TRADE.—The reduction of hours does not appear to be beneficial to the employer as well as to the employee. He was in favor of sending two workmen to the Legislature who would look to the interests of the working classes. Let the politicians go to their own business, and workmen attend to their own business.

PERSONAL.—We are requested by Mr. J. O'Brien, Esq., the gentlemanly and efficient Assistant Superintendent of the Southern Express Company, who, as his numerous friends testify, is never weary of doing.

RECORDERS' WEEKLY REPORT.—We were shown this document yesterday by Mr. W. R. Cotton, Clerk of the Recorder's Court, and learn from it that during the week ending on Saturday last, one hundred and twelve cases were tried, and nine were dismissed.

INCREASE OF INMORALITY.—On Sunday night the police made numerous arrests to keep police and arrested about fifty persons. Truly this city is rapidly approaching the evil repute of some of the large Northern and Eastern towns, but although it is certainly progressing, in our sense of the word, we do not congratulate our fellow-citizens on the circumstance.

ST. PATRICK'S CATHOLIC CHURCH.—On Sunday, March 20, the celebrated Mass, for three weeks, was rendered by Mrs. Tomlinson, Mrs. Clary and Mr. Salazky, in a style of such superior excellence as really left nothing to be desired. We hope that it will be repeated, as with that gentleman, finished and accurate. The church was filled to overflowing, and we informed many persons were unable to gain admittance. On next Sabbath, "Easter," Mrs. H. Twelfth Mass will be.

THE LEADERSHIP.—When the war is over, the friends of Gen. Washington desired to make him a handsome donation. He declined to receive it unless the donors would allow him to invest it in an institution for the good of the country. They consented, and the following resolution was adopted:

"Resolved, That a committee of three be appointed to draft a suitable resolution.
